

The Roman Catholic Parish of

Holy Trinity Church

Hackensack~Teaneck, New Jersey

Palm Sunday 9 April 2017

Holy Trinity Church is a multiethnic community reflective of her Catholic tradition, united in one holy, catholic, and apostolic faith. Together we desire to adore the Triune God with the same reverence and devotion as do our Blessed Mother and all the saints. We invite all Catholics who have moved into the Hackensack~ Teaneck area to join us in worship and register as members of our parish. We invite those interested in becoming Catholic to visit and join us in our faith and devotion.

In Christianity, the palm branch is associated particularly with Palm Sunday, when palm branches were waved at the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. It was adopted into Christian iconography to represent the victory of martyrs, or the victory of the spirit over the flesh.

Prayer for Our Troops

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Wisdom of the Saints

Go forth in peace, for you have followed the good road. Go forth without fear, for He that created you has sanctified you, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Blessed be Thou, O God, for having created me.
 —St. Clare, speaking to herself on her death bed

They must be esteemed to have lost their sense, who either pursuing abundance, or fearing lack of temporal goods, lose those which are eternal.
 —St. Thomas Aquinas

Our labor here is brief, but the reward is eternal. Do not be disturbed by the clamor of the world, which passes like a shadow. Do not let the false delights of a deceptive world deceive you.

Supplementing Retirement with a Planned Gift:

Are you nearing retirement or are already retired and are looking to make a year-end gift? If so, a Charitable Gift Annuity can be a way to supplement your retirement income and help your parish at the same time. Also, if you are 70 ½ or older, don't forget about the IRA Charitable Rollover. Let the Archdiocese of Newark help you set up a Charitable Gift Annuity by contacting Theresa Lynch in the Planned Giving Office. She can be reached at (973) 497-4042 or by e-mail at lynchthe@rcan.org.

STEWARDSHIP

Last Sunday's Collection/Colecta de Domingo Pasado: $TBA

O My People

My People, what have I done to you? How have I offended you?
Answer Me

Because I led you from Egypt,
you have prepared a Cross for your Savior
Because I led you for forty years through the desert, fed you with manna, and brought you into a land of plenty,
you have prepared a Cross for your Savior.

I planted you as my most fair vine,
but you yielded only bitterness; when I was thirsty you gave me vinegar to drink and you pierced your Savior's side with a lance.

For your sake I scourged Egypt and their firstborn sons;
you gave me over to be scourged

I led you out of Egypt, overwhelming Pharaoh in the Red Sea;
you have delivered me to the chief priests.

I opened the sea before you;
you opened my side with a lance.

I went before you in a pillar of cloud;
you have led me to the judgment hall of Pilate.

I fed you with manna in the desert;
you have struck me with blows and scourges.

I gave you the water of salvation to drink from the rock;
you have given me gall and vinegar to drink.

For you I struck down the kings of Canaan;
you have struck my head with a reed.

I gave you a royal scepter;
you have given me a crown of thorns.

with great power I lifted you up;
you have hung me on the Cross.

My People, what have I done to you? How have I offended you?
Answer me.

This Good Friday we will sing the Reproaches as we venerate the cross of Jesus. We will behold the wood of the Cross on which hung the Salvation of the world. They remind us of the great love God has for us but our responses are always so inadequate. Our ancestors suffered in Egypt but were led out of the slavery of their worldly masters into freedom under the mighty hand of God, yet we forget and still we sin, betray, and offend our Savior. It is our sins that offend him and in the Good Friday liturgy we acknowledge our sinfulness so that we can accept his Mercy, a Mercy that forgives sin and forgets punishment. A Mercy that is so beyond our understanding that if we were able to grasp it all we would then be already dead, for we would be beholding Mercy Itself, the Face of God. So as we pray the Our Father, remember clearly the line: forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. With these words said in the depths of our being, we taste the Mercy of God because we have acted holy like our heavenly Father is holy. He said, "It is mercy I desire, not sacrifice," that is the amazing grace of God. He has found us who have offended Him worthy of his love and mercy, and there is no other sacrifice other than the cross that can grant us mercy and be a source of grace for us to likewise show mercy to others and be grateful for his mercy.

Making Those Funeral Arrangements

Planning or even thinking about one's own funeral is unpleasant and therefore something we tend to push far out of our minds. When the time finally comes it leaves the family stressed and overwhelmed by all the decisions they must make. You can relieve some of this stress for your loved ones by planning your Funeral Liturgy (Mass of Christian Burial). Lynn Berhalter would like to assist you in choosing the Scriptures to be read at your funeral Mass according to the archdiocesan guidelines. She can also help you choose the hymns that will add to the solemnity of your Mass. This is simple to do and it helps fulfill your wishes and eases your families' burden. Make an appointment to see Lynn at the rectory to get started.

Your plans will be kept on file at Holy Trinity Church and may be amended anytime if you wish. Planning ahead ensures your family that the readings and music you desired are carried out and they need not worry. It is a beautiful final gesture, a gift to those who grieve. Call 201-343-5170 now and make your appointment.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Now we have come to the center of the Christian year, beginning with today, Passion Sunday, Holy Week, and culminating in the Pasch, the Sacred Triduum. Some have called the culminating event in this week's journey of faith "The Three Days of Easter." The origins of many of our observances, including today's blessing of palms and solemn entry into the church, harken back to old Jerusalem.

In the late fourth century, a woman living a consecrated life in southern France made a four-year pilgrimage to Jerusalem. There, she encountered the rich liturgies of the city, bursting with Christians. She was a keen observer, and fortunately for us wrote vivid letters of her experience to a circle of women friends she calls her sisters. By the time of her journey, it is clear that even some catechumens were undertaking the dangerous journey so that they could be formed at the very site of the events of Christ's passion and rising. At the heart of the pilgrim experience were processions, such as today's joyous procession to the Mount of Olives, and brilliant catechesis from the bishop every day, as well as intense fasting and prayer. When you resolve to keep this week holy in your own life, and especially when you commit to participate in the full Triduum with worship in church and fasting at home, a very ancient tradition is within your grasp.

NOTICIAS PARA TI

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El Viernes Santo es el día más impresionante que se conmemora en el calendario cristiano. Es el día en que Jesús, muriendo en la cruz, se revela al mismo tiempo como Hijo del Hombre e Hijo de Dios. Los hispanos conmemoramos este día no sólo con la liturgia oficial de la Iglesia, sino también con nuestras devociones populares como el Vía crucis en vivo, el Pésame a la Virgen y el sermón de las Siete Palabras. Esta última devoción es también conocida como el Sermón de tres horas y es mayormente usada por las Iglesias protestantes, sin embargo, tiene su origen gracias al sacerdote Jesuita Francisco del Castillo, en Perú.

Como Jesús, este santo varón dedicó toda su vida a los pobres y marginados. El Viernes Santo de 1660, mientras predicaba en la iglesia de Nuestra Señora de los Desamparados, ante la efigie del Señor en agonía, decidió hacer una comparación del sufrimiento de Cristo al sufrimiento de los desamparados, llamando a los cristianos al apostolado de caridad y justicia. Las siete últimas palabras de Jesucristo deben movernos al servicio de los desamparados.

LA CRUZ

Nosotros hemos de gloriarnos en la cruz de nuestro Señor Jesucristo: en él está nuestra salvación, vida y resurrección; él nos ha salvado y liberado.

—Antífona de entrada, Misa vespertina de la Cena del Señor, Misal Roman

PARA VER A CRISTO CLARAMENTE

Hoy comenzamos viendo a través de las puertas de Jerusalén, vemos a la multitud, aclamando y agitando ramos de olivo en el aire. Es una atmósfera de júbilo, triunfo y celebración. Podemos distraernos o embelesarnos con la escena y no ver claramente las características de Jesús cuando entra. Pero nuestras lecturas de Isaías y la carta de Pablo a los filipenses aclaran estas características. Él es el Siervo que Sufrir, manso y callado ante sus captores y perseguidores; es la mismísima imagen del Dios invisible, sin embargo, no se aferrará a la igualdad con Dios antes de sufrir su enfrentamiento final en humildad. Isaías y Pablo nos ayudan a “ver al Cordero de Dios” antes de oír el relato de su mayor y último enfrentamiento. Es importante que veamos a Cristo claramente antes de oír el relato de su Pasión, porque nosotros—su Cuerpo por medio del Bautismo, la Iglesia—somos su rostro. Debemos, junto con él, pasar por este tiempo de sufrimiento para que podamos, también junto con él, pasar por su triunfo final.
