THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Knowledge, Fortitude, Piety, Fear of the Lord

Wisdom of the Saints

Think well. Speak well. Do well. These three things, through the mercy of God, will make a man go to heaven.
 —St. Camillus de Lellis

Here is a rule for everyday life: Do not do anything which you cannot offer to God.
 —St. John Vianney

Pay no attention to the affairs of others, whether they be good or bad, for besides the danger of sin, this is a cause of distractions and lack of spirit.
 —St. John of the Cross

STEWARDSHIP

Last Sunday's Collection/Colecta de Domingo Pasado:
 $7259.000

Ascension Thursday Collection: $1241.00

Our Catholic faith tells us that the Holy Spirit dwells in us. At our baptism we became temples of the Holy Spirit. Isn't it odd though that more often than not we do not sense the Holy Spirit? How can the infinite Spirit dwell in the finite being? How can the Holy Spirit exist in the heart of one who sins both in body and mind? How is it possible that the Source of Life abides in the corruptible flesh?

Did you ever have that moment when you were faced with a practical choice: do I pray for that annoying person or do I forgo a prayer and pray for myself? Do I give the beggar a buck or do I walk right on by? It is at these moments that the Holy Spirit speaks. We may think it is our own thoughts or mental processes but it is God speaking to us. I recall the times that I am praying. Sometimes I am lazy and am slouching on a couch. In my mind it is clear I should sit up since proper posture is an outward sign of my willingness to pray and lends to the seriousness of my duties. It is at this moment that the Spirit of God is telling me to take my prayer as a holy duty and not be slothful. I must listen to the Spirit from within who prompts me to holiness.

At our confirmation, God has sent us his Spirit to fill us with the gifts of Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Knowledge, Fortitude, Piety, and Fear of the Lord. With wisdom we come to see God in everything, at every time, and in everyone. So when the needy approach us we see that what we do for the least, we do for Jesus.

The gift of understanding helps us to see how we need to live as a follower of Jesus. With understanding we can see the truth and reject the conflicting messages of our culture that are contrary to right living. Choose life, so that you may love the Lord your God, listen to his voice, and hold fast to him.

With the gift of counsel we know the difference between right and wrong, and we choose to do what is right. A person with right judgment avoids sin and lives out the values taught by Jesus. It is the gift of truth that allows us to respond prudently, and to believe Christ.

The gift of knowledge helps us understand the meaning of God, not solely with facts but in the heart and renders us capable of being the instrument of Christ.

The gift of piety (reverence) gives us a deep sense of respect for God and the Church. We come to recognize our reliance on God with humility, trust, and love. Piety is the gift whereby, at the Holy Spirit's instigation, we pay worship and duty to God as our Father, Aquinas wrote. So doing prayers halfheartedly or with tedium shows a lack of piety.

With the gift of fear of the Lord we are aware of the glory and majesty of God. This gift is described by Aquinas as a fear of separating oneself from God. He describes the gift as a "filial fear," like a child's fear of offending his father, rather than a "servile fear," that is, a fear of punishment. And so out of love and fear of offending God we can be kind to others, mutually forgiving, and merciful.

Yes the Spirit of God dwells in the believer, but unless we use his gifts and be fully Christian in thought and action, we will be like an egg that never hatches, and that stinks!

SPIRITUAL LIFE

LA VIDA ESPIRITUAL

COME, PRAY WITH US

Holy Trinity Prayer Group - charismatic prayer every Thursday at 7:30 PM at 30 Maple

Adoration - every first Friday from 12:30 to 10:00 PM

Thursday, June 15th at 7:00 PM "On Carrying the Cross" with Rich Fritzky

Rich Fritzky, father of 12 and author of A Pilgrim's Song – Mary Varick and Her Theology of Suffering, Tidings of Great Joy – Keeping Christmas Well and What Must Needs Come – a Legacy of Gettysburg looks forward to returning to Holy Trinity on Thursday evening, June 15 at 7:00 p.m. An inspiring and moving speaker, he will suggest that the most important work any of us can possibly do here on earth is to help Christ carry the cross.

In a recent appearance at Our Lady of Grace in Hoboken, he, a quadruple amputee who lost both legs and all but the stub of one finger, said, "What people see is my stark brokenness and they can be thrown by it, but I have rather found my disability to be a blessing. I am, as I am, living my best life. Loss and chronic suffering were my invitation to prayer, to grace, to sacrifice, to the cross, to humility, to mercy, to joy and to you."

He believes that all who share our faith "falteringly follow an unbounded and unlimited hope in the promise, born of Good Friday and Easter, a promise beyond our seeing or even our imagining, a promise that is bound to our willingness to love and to love without ever counting the costs or looking for anything in return."

He last spoke to us in December of 2015 and it proved to be a moving experience for all who attended, but Father Paul hopes that more parishioners might take advantage and come out this time.

Rich knows Holy Trinity intimately as he spent the first 22 years of his life here as a member of our parish. His website is www.richfritzky.com and should you like to reach him in advance, you can do so by emailing him at rfritzky@msn.com.

Memorial Mass for Oscar Bradford June 20 at 12:10

When Oscar passed away he left behind a small family who lives a distance away. He had expressed to his daughter how lonely he was and how few friends he had so she did not plan a funeral Mass. This was far from the truth. Many of us appreciated and loved Oscar.

On June 20, I will celebrate a memorial mass for Oscar at 12:10 PM and then I will go to George Washington Cemetery in Paramus and bless his grave. Afterward I will take lunch. I invite anyone who cared for Oscar to join me.
