The Seven Sacraments: Life with Christ
Baptism

1278 The essential rite of Baptism consists in immersing the candidate in water or pouring water on his head, while pronouncing the invocation of the Most Holy Trinity: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
1279 The fruit of Baptism, or baptismal grace, is a rich reality that includes forgiveness of original sin and all personal sins, birth into the new life by which man becomes an adoptive son of the Father, a member of Christ and a temple of the Holy Spirit. By this very fact the person baptized is incorporated into the Church, the Body of Christ, and made a sharer in the priesthood of Christ.
1280 Baptism imprints on the soul an indelible spiritual sign, the character, which consecrates the baptized person for Christian worship. Because of the character Baptism cannot be repeated (cf. DS 1609 and DS 1624).

STEWARDSHIP

Last Sunday's Collection/Colecta de Domingo Pasado: $7124.00

Tuesday, July 4,2017
Independence day
Masses: 7:00 AM and 8:00 AM only.
No 12:10 PM Mass

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness (Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776).

These words were written 241 years ago. The men who penned these thoughts were putting their lives at risk. They knew that once the king found out their names, they were men with a price on their head. Nevertheless, they believed in these words that have become sacrosanct. We as a nation live by them or at least we ought to.

Self-evident: there are many truths that are self-evident however in today's climate of thinking this term is obsolete and has fallen into disfavor. Common sense, logic and the Laws of Nature and Nature's God have become verboten. Many seem to think that if a large enough number of people agree on a thought then it is true or takes on the force of law (positive law). This is why homosexuality has become normative along with homosexuals wedding, abortion has become a right, and even among Catholics co-habitation (living together without the benefit of the Sacrament of Marriage) has become acceptable behavior.

As of the moment, most see that all men are created equal but soon with this positive law attitude we will come to the point when certain sects of society will laud themselves and see themselves as more deserving, as superior and as more righteous than the other and so they believe that they can and must impose their "truthful" thoughts on the rest. Do we not see this already in the Hollywood elite, the far-left who try to stifle free speech, and the commercial world that tells us what we need and desire? And there are the thought police who tell us it is offensive to root for the Redskins and being against homosexuals marrying is hate speech.

This 4th of July, remember to thank God we have a nation where we can be free and ask Him to bestow his grace on our Nation so that we may continue to live free of those who would impose their ideologies and rob us of our rights to life. liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Pax Christi, Fr. Paul

The 2018 Mass Book

We began accepting Mass Intentions for 2018 on June 1, 2017 at the rectory. Intentions may be offered for the dead to gain indulgences. You may offer Mass for deceased individuals or for families. No more than 3 Sunday Masses can be offered at this time. After July 1 you may offer more weekend Masses if they're available. Intentions for Mass may also be offered for the living. One does not offer Mass for saints or the Blessed Mother since they are already in heaven.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's Independence Day week, and there is a link worth tracing between the Declaration of Independence and the language of liturgy. One of the signers of the Declaration on that July 4 long ago was Charles Carroll, probably the wealthiest man in the colonies and one of the few Catholics on the political scene. As a flourish to his signature, he sought to distinguish himself from other prominent citizens bearing the same name by penning "Charles Carroll of Carrolltown"—a defiant "come and get me if you dare" postscript aimed at the British.

Carroll's brother John was a priest and patriot who in 1789 was given the task of organizing the Catholic Church in this country. By 1791 he had assembled a synod, or assembly of delegates, to launch that task formally. Archbishop Carroll wanted to gain acceptance of our faith by American people who mistrusted our customs and could not comprehend our liturgy. He made the amazing proposal to Rome that our liturgy should be prayed not in Latin, but in the vernacular, English. His wish was denied, but one hundred sixty years later, his deep desire helped the American bishops and scholars at the Second Vatican Council to win the vote in favor of the vernacular not just for the United States, but for the Church throughout the world.

IS YOUR MARRIAGE A VALID SACRAMENT?

If you were married civilly, that is not in the Catholic Church before a priest or deacon, it is not a valid sacramental marriage. This is an impediment to receiving the Eucharist and other sacraments. Some couples believe that a marriage before a Justice of the Peace or a non-Catholic minister is valid. For a marriage to be valid in the Catholic Church, the marriage must be in a Catholic Church or Chapel and officiated by an authorized Catholic priest or deacon along with 2 witnesses. (There are limited interfaith exceptions with proper permission.)

I invite you to speak with one of our priests if there are any questions or if indeed you wish to validate your marriage. The process can be very simple and your marriage will now be blessed by the Church. Once the Marriage is convalidated, that is blessed in the Church, you will be able to receive the Eucharist, make Sacramental Confession, and receive the other sacraments.

Los Siete Sacramentos: Vida con Cristo
Bautismo

1278 El rito esencial del Bautismo consiste en sumergir en el agua al candidato o derramar agua sobre su cabeza, pronunciando la invocación de la Santísima Trinidad, es decir, del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo.

1279 El fruto del Bautismo, o gracia bautismal, es una realidad rica que comprende: el perdón del pecado original y de todos los pecados personales; el nacimiento a la vida nueva, por la cual el hombre es hecho hijo adoptivo del Padre, miembro de Cristo, templo del Espíritu Santo. Por la acción misma del bautismo, el bautizado es incorporado a la Iglesia, Cuerpo de Cristo, y hecho partícipe del sacerdocio de Cristo.

1280 El Bautismo imprime en el alma un signo espiritual indeleble, el carácter, que consagra al bautizado al culto de la religión cristiana. Por razón del carácter, el Bautismo no puede ser reiterado.
