The Seven Sacraments: Life with Christ Confirmation

1318 In the East this sacrament is administered immediately after Baptism and is followed by participation in the Eucharist; this tradition highlights the unity of the three sacraments of Christian initiation. In the Latin Church this sacrament is administered when the age of reason has been reached, and its celebration is ordinarily reserved to the bishop, thus signifying that this sacrament strengthens the ecclesial bond.

1319 A candidate for Confirmation who has attained the age of reason must profess the faith, be in the state of grace, have the intention of receiving the sacrament, and be prepared to assume the role of disciple and witness to Christ, both within the ecclesial community and in temporal affairs.

1320 The essential rite of Confirmation is anointing the forehead of the baptized with sacred chrism (in the East other sense-organs as well), together with the laying on of the minister's hand and the words: "Accipe signaculum doni Spiritus Sancti" (Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.) in the Roman Rite, or "The seal of the gift that is the Holy Spirit" in the Byzantine rite.

1321 When Confirmation is celebrated separately from Baptism, its connection with Baptism is expressed, among other ways, by the renewal of baptismal promises. the celebration of Confirmation during the Eucharist helps underline the unity of the sacraments of Christian initiation.

STEWARDSHIP

Last Sunday's Collection/Colecta de Domingo Pasado: $7225.00

For with you is the fountain of life, and in your light we see light.
Show mercy on those who know you,
your just defense to the upright of heart.
Do not let the foot of the proud overtake me,
nor the hand of the wicked disturb me.
There make the evildoers fall;
thrust them down, unable to rise. (Psalm 36:10-13)

“You said it all in a nut shell. Western civilization is killing itself. What Hitler imposed, we are institutionalizing. What communism proposes in the supremacy of the state is now accepted without protest.” This was my response to William McGurn’s editorial in the WSJ: For the Love of Charlie Gard (<https://www.wsj.com/articles/for-the-love-of-charlie-gard-1500326103>).

Charlie Gard is a child in Great Britain who has an incurable genetic disease which will eventually cause his death. His parents want him to be cared for, treated and to live until natural death. However, the state has coopted the parents’ right to make decisions for their own child and has ordered that life support be removed to end the child’s “suffering”, though there is no proof of suffering. What Mr. McGurn makes clear in his letter is that in the post-Christian Western mentality, suffering no longer has a place or meaning therefore one must conclude that suffering must be eliminated. That is, those who “suffer” must be euthanized. And who are these that must be eliminated? The unwanted child, the elderly sick, the genetically defective, the poor masses, the powerless, the mentally deficient, et al. But realize this, they are all made in the image and likeness of God and their lives are precious to behold. They are not to be scorned or declared to be “suffering” as if they were a lame horse or mangy dog.

For centuries under the influence of Christian thought and theology, suffering has found meaning and those who suffer are not to be eliminated but are to be cared for, loved, and nurtured. Likewise the sufferer can unite his pain and suffering to the pain and suffering that Christ endured on the cross. Jesus himself took the cross not as a sign of defeat but one of victory: victory over death, redemption over damnation, and love over hate. When Christ was lifted up on the cross, many saw a criminal, but the believer saw and sees a God who suffered and died for him/her. When Christ resurrected, death the oppressive ruler was defeated and life was triumphant. Unfortunately now that more and more people move away from Christ and faith, the darkness of suffering and death becomes once again oppressive. Man begins to see them as a finality and void of meaning. Redemption is no longer hoped for and the only thing man begins to worship is himself and this life. This pagan or atheistic attitude is absent of faith, bereft of hope and so empty of love. While progressives believe that God is an imaginary friend and the state has power to make laws, educate children and provide for the needs of all, the Christian and those of good will seek the law of God, desire to be the first of educators of their children and be free to provide and care for their families. The state exists only to guarantee these rights, it is not the creator of them. Recall the patriotic saying: Don’t tread on me. When the state or the potentate claims to have jurisdiction over the people, it oversteps its authority and becomes an adversary of God and of the people.

Yes Western civilization is dying. What will replace it I cannot say but I have hope in the end that Truth will triumph and faith in God will be restored.

Fr. Paul

2016 GALA, A SPLASH!

What a great time we had at the Parish Gala on July 16. 140 parishioners attended and Sr. Emily was there to celebrate with us. What were we celebrating after all? We were celebrating being a parish, as a community of believers committed to Christ in our good works, our words of faith and in the joy of a Christian life that leads to life eternal.

We also had the chance to wish a happy birthday to Sr. Emily, only 96 years young! She expressed how much she missed us having spent more than half of her life at Holy Trinity.

I take time to thank Lynn Berhalter and her crew for working so hard to make it an unforgettable night.

All in all, though it was not a fund raiser, we realize over $2000 which will be put to the renovations of the church. Though you may not see it, the contractors have been coming to make plans and bids. I was able to get work on the rectory done thus far. The roof was repaired and the leaking has ceased. Also new gutters were installed and two windows replaced. There is more to come but it is slow. I have learned to be patient. After all Rome was not built in a day.

Thank you all for your patience and support. We will get the job done.

Fr. Paul

IS YOUR MARRIAGE A VALID SACRAMENT?

If you were married civilly, that is not in the Catholic Church before a priest or deacon, it is not a valid sacramental marriage. This is an impediment to receiving the Eucharist and other sacraments. For a marriage to be valid in the Catholic Church, the marriage must be in a Catholic Church or Chapel and officiated by an authorized Catholic priest or deacon along with 2 witnesses. (There are limited interfaith exceptions with proper permission.)

I invite you to speak with one of our priests if there are any questions or if indeed you wish to validate your marriage. The process can be very simple and your marriage will now be blessed by the Church. Once the Marriage is validated, that is blessed in the Church, you will be able to receive the Eucharist, make Sacramental Confession, and receive the other sacraments.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, M.S.C. (July 15, 1850 – December 22, 1917), also called Mother Cabrini, founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a major support to the Italian immigrants to the US. She was the first naturalized citizen of the US to be canonized on July 7, 1946.

Cabrini arrived in New York City on March 31, 1889, along with six other sisters. She encountered disappointment and difficulties at every step. She obtained the permission of Archbishop Corrigan to found an orphanage, which is located in West Park, New York today and is known as Saint Cabrini Home.

Cabrini organized catechism and education classes for the Italian immigrants (including St. Anthony's in Silver Lake, Belleville). She established schools and orphanages despite tremendous odds. In New York City, she founded Columbus Hospital and Italian Hospital. In the 1980s, they were merged into Cabrini Medical Center.

In 1933, her remains were moved to the chapel of Mother Cabrini High School. Following her canonization, a new shrine was built in 1957 on the school grounds. The major portion of her body is now enshrined under glass in the altar of the shrine. Today, the Shrine continues as a center of welcome for new immigrants and pilgrims of many nationalities who come to pray and reflect. The street to the west of the shrine was renamed Cabrini Boulevard in her honor.

Los Siete Sacramentos: Vida con Cristo Confirmación

1318 En Oriente, este sacramento es administrado inmediatamente después del Bautismo y es seguido de la participación en la Eucaristía, tradición que pone de relieve la unidad de los tres sacramentos de la iniciación cristiana. En la Iglesia latina se administra este sacramento cuando se ha alcanzado el uso de razón, y su celebración se reserva ordinariamente al obispo, significando así que este sacramento robustece el vínculo eclesial.

1319 El candidato a la Confirmación que ya ha alcanzado el uso de razón debe profesar la fe, estar en estado de gracia, tener la intención de recibir el sacramento y estar preparado para asumir su papel de discípulo y de testigo de Cristo, en la comunidad eclesial y en los asuntos temporales.

1320 El rito esencial de la Confirmación es la unción con el Santo Crisma en la frente del bautizado (y en Oriente, también en los otros órganos de los sentidos), con la imposición de la mano del ministro y las palabras: Accipe signaculum doni Spiritus Sancti ("Recibe por esta señal el don del Espíritu Santo"), en el rito romano; Signaculum doni Spiritus Sancti ("Sello del don del Espíritu Santo"), en el rito bizantino.

1321 Cuando la Confirmación se celebra separadamente del Bautismo, su conexión con el Bautismo se expresa entre otras cosas por la renovación de los compromisos bautismales. La celebración de la Confirmación dentro de la Eucaristía contribuye a subrayar la unidad de los sacramentos de la iniciación cristiana.

LA MISERICORDIA, EL PODER Y EL AMOR DE DIOS

La primera lectura de hoy, del libro de la Sabiduría, va al punto una y otra vez, ¡al menos cinco veces en cinco versículos! Dios es poderoso, pero compasivo con todos. La fuerza de Dios se muestra en la bondad y la clemencia, no en la aspereza o la condenación, y quienes gobiernan al pueblo de Dios deben gobernar de igual manera, con bondad. Esta amorosa bondad y delicadeza no son contrarios al poder de Dios, sino directo resultado de la primacía de Dios sobre todo. ¿Quiénes somos nosotros, entonces, para juzgar el corazón de nuestros hermanos cristianos y a toda la gente, cuando Dios ordena justicia con amor y clemencia?

De igual manera, el Espíritu Santo suple nuestra ignorancia de lo que necesitamos, hablando en un lenguaje que no comprendemos todavía. Pero Dios conoce nuestras necesidades antes que nosotros, entiende las intercesiones del Espíritu, y nos ayuda en nuestra necesidad. Esta es nuestra esperanza: la misericordia, el poder y el amor de Dios.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Bartolomé de las Casas, el gran defensor de los indígenas, nació en Sevilla, España en 1474 y falleció en Madrid en el año 1566. Su larga vida fue dedicada a la presencia española en América.

Bartolomé llegó a la Nueva España para encargarse de una Encomienda. Después fue ordenado sacerdote y recibió a cargo una encomienda de mineros amerindios. Poco a poco su corazón cristiano le abrió los ojos a las injusticias españolas en América.

Por eso se hizo fraile dominico e hizo varios viajes a España en defensa de los derechos humanos de los amerindios ante los reyes de España, los cuales le dieron tierras en Venezuela y Chiapas para poner en práctica su teoría humanista acerca de los indígenas.

Hasta el fin de su vida este fraile y teólogo dominico luchó por los derechos de los nativos americanos, buscando convencer a los reyes españoles y a los Papas que la conquista no favorecía la evangelización de los pueblos. Gracias a sus esfuerzos se abolió la esclavitud indígena y se instituyó el diálogo, en lugar de la espada, como instrumento de conversión.
