The Seven Sacraments: Life with Christ
 Eucharist

1414 As sacrifice, the Eucharist is also offered in reparation for the sins of the living and the dead and to obtain spiritual or temporal benefits from God.
 1415 Anyone who desires to receive Christ in Eucharistic communion must be in the state of grace. Anyone aware of having sinned mortally must not receive communion without having received absolution in the sacrament of penance.
 1416 Communion with the Body and Blood of Christ increases the communicant's union with the Lord, forgives his venial sins, and preserves him from grave sins. Since receiving this sacrament strengthens the bonds of charity between the communicant and Christ, it also reinforces the unity of the Church as the Mystical Body of Christ.
 1417 The Church warmly recommends that the faithful receive Holy Communion each time they participate in the celebration of the Eucharist; she obliges them to do so at least once a year.
 1418 Because Christ himself is present in the sacrament of the altar, he is to be honored with the worship of adoration. "To visit the Blessed Sacrament is . . . a proof of gratitude, an expression of love, and a duty of adoration toward Christ our Lord" (Paul VI, MF 66).
 1419 Having passed from this world to the Father, Christ gives us in the Eucharist the pledge of glory with him. Participation in the Holy Sacrifice identifies us with his Heart, sustains our strength along the pilgrimage of this life, makes us long for eternal life, and unites us even now to the Church in heaven, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and all the saints.

STEWARDSHIP

Last Sunday's Collection/Colecta de Domingo Pasado: $5819.00
 Maintenance Collection/Colecta de Mantenimiento:$5784.00
 CCC (AC Trip): $1000.00

This past week I had lunch with a lovely lady from Peru. She came to the country and worked very hard to learn English, get a job, get married and raise a daughter. She brought the girl up in the faith. Church every Sunday and teaching her the prayers. Her daughter is now grown. She lives alone in the city with her dog who has health insurance. Only one thing, she does not go to Mass. Her mother is perplexed. Why not? The girl was brought up in the faith and she hoped to impart her values on her daughter. It seems to have been a failure.

I said half-jokingly, "You did one thing wrong. You let her watch TV." What I am getting at is that the milieu that she had been immersed in from a very young age was one of television and Hollywood. The entertainment world I contend has been brainwashing the youth since about the mid-70's. Everything we had known to be good and true has been assaulted by the media. "Why do we need a paper to say we love each other?" Michael Stivik barked to Archie Bunker about marriage. Three's Company implied that people of the opposite sex living together is acceptable. Prior to the 70's father knew best, but by the 80's fathers were depicted as incompetent, dopey, stupid, and often absent. Friends were a group of adults who didn't want to grow up and were involved in many "different" relationships all projected as good, normal, and healthy. Suicide is often glorified in films. Even a film I enjoy greatly, Fight Club, ends with a downer presenting suicide as a legitimate escape from problems. I can go on and on.

But it is clear that the children learned more from the entertainment media than any parent could teach. Even if you were the best parents, the child still grew up surrounded by thoughts, mores, and propaganda contrary to centuries of knowledge and revelation. Prior to this turn in culture which came to fruition in the 70s, marriage was good, abortion was evil, homosexuality was considered disordered behavior, and going to church on Sundays was the norm. Today, abortion is a right, marriage is optional, sexuality is confused, and church is for the old ladies and "those religious" ethnic groups. It's difficult to beat the system. Just as racism is systemic, which means people and culture can be racist without realizing it, so too people and culture can be evil or at least contrary to sound thinking and solid ethics. The days when everyone generally knew what was right and wrong and agreed upon it are far away. Now what is right and wrong is arbitrary and left to the individual conscience or the ruling of a court, not the Judeo-Christian tradition that has formed a civilized world for centuries. When we no longer look to God and revelation as the sources of truth and consider man to be the ultimate arbitrator of truth we collapse: the family, the country, the world.

My brothers and sisters, we must give ourselves over to Christ and the Christian way or otherwise we will go down. We cannot love both God and mammon. Either we will love Christ and hate the evil one, or love the evil one and hate Christ. As St. Peter called on Christ when he doubted, likewise we must say loud and clearly, "Lord, save me."

Pax Christi, Fr. Paul

Healing the Wounds of Abortion

The psychological & spiritual wounds from abortion can be vast and crippling. You may feel stuck in life and not know why, or even numb, not able to name the buried pain or recognize the symptoms of post abortion syndrome. An abortion can often have a devastating impact on the father and grandparents of the aborted child and the friend/s of their parents, as well. Do not continue to hide in shame, fear or confusion. The Rachel's Vineyard retreat is a chance to focus on this difficult time in your life while moving you through a non-judgmental group process. This is done in a supportive atmosphere with confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. The program is designed to help both women and men to revive their hope by experiencing the tender mercy of God in Christ Jesus.

If you're suffering from a past abortion experience and have isolated yourself from help and forgiveness, we've been there! Consider attending one of the upcoming retreat weekends here in the archdiocese.

IS YOUR MARRIAGE A VALID SACRAMENT?

If you were married civilly, that is not in the Catholic Church before a priest or deacon, it is not a valid sacramental marriage. This is an impediment to receiving the Eucharist and other sacraments. For a marriage to be valid in the Catholic Church, the marriage must be in a Catholic Church or Chapel and officiated by an authorized Catholic priest or deacon along with 2 witnesses. (There are limited interfaith exceptions with proper permission.)

I invite you to speak with one of our priests if there are any questions or if indeed you wish to validate your marriage. The process can be very simple and your marriage will now be blessed by the Church. Once the Marriage is convalidated, that is blessed in the Church, you will be able to receive the Eucharist, make Sacramental Confession, and receive the other sacraments.

Grief to Grace Retreat – Healing the Wounds of Abuse
Kearny, New Jersey – September 10 thru 15, 2017

This is the perfect time to embrace the healing you deserve. Survivors of abuse are invited to end the isolation and shame of past trauma as you embrace mercy, love and a miraculous journey to wholeness. Experience renewal and transformation of the toxic grief that lingers in your body and mind into a wellspring of cleansing grace to bring forth justice and inner peace.

Painful wounds can be the vehicle for exploring and revealing the deepest textures of your heart by journeying into the grief, opening to safely release the pain, and allowing ourselves to be taught, as we journey in solidarity without fear; without holding back; without blame or denial. You will recognize, perhaps for the first time, that Christ was beside you in every moment of your history. Grief to Grace provides a unique way to face the depth and tragedy of abuse while reclaiming your value and exceptional human dignity.

Grief to Grace is a five day psychological and spiritual journey for anyone who has suffered violation through physical, emotional or sexual abuse or neglect. It is appropriate for those who have endured rape, incest, or other forms of traumatic violation in childhood, adolescence or as an adult. It is also suitable for those who have suffered spiritual or sexual abuse by a member of the clergy. This model of care provides a powerful therapy for the soul.

Grief to Grace will help you identify the ways that past abuse may still impact your spirit as you enter into powerful meditations and reflections that allow your body and mind to be transformed into a new way to trust and appreciate your unique gifts, courage, creativity, and authentic yearning for connection and a supportive community. Embark on an adventure to release the pain and move forward in resurrection, reconciliation and freedom. Please contact us for more details about Grief to Grace Retreats. Contact Cheryl at (973) 497-4350 or Jeanne at (610) 203-2002 or send an e-mail to rileyche@rcan.org. Additional information and upcoming retreats in other locations can be found at www.griefftograce.org. The retreat was composed by Dr. Theresa Burke, author of the Rachel's Vineyard Retreats for healing after abortion.

Making Those Funeral Arrangements

Planning or even thinking about one's own funeral is unpleasant and therefore something we tend to push far out of our minds. When the time finally comes it leaves the family stressed and overwhelmed by all the decisions they must make. You can relieve some of this stress for your loved ones by planning your Funeral Liturgy (Mass of Christian Burial). Lynn Berhalter would like to assist you in choosing the Scriptures to be read at your funeral Mass according to the archdiocesan guidelines. She can also help you choose the hymns that will add to the solemnity of your Mass. This is simple to do and it helps fulfill your wishes and eases your families' burden.

Make an appointment to see Lynn at the rectory to get started.

Your plans will be kept on file at Holy Trinity Church and may be amended anytime if you wish. Planning ahead ensures your family that the readings and music you desired are carried out and they need not worry. It is a beautiful final gesture, a gift to those who grieve. Call 201-343-5170 now and make your appointment.

NADA QUE TEMER

A un rabino le preguntaron por qué Dios envía pruebas y tribulaciones a los humanos. "Porque Dios siente la ausencia de su pueblo", fue la respuesta. Hay ecos de esta sabiduría en el Evangelio de hoy, cuando Jesús hace que sus discípulos se suban a la barca sin él y se va por su cuenta mientras ellos se aventuran en aguas turbulentas. Por cierto, ni judíos ni cristianos creen que el Todopoderoso hace este tipo de jugadas antojadizas con ellos, pero tiene algo de verdad la afirmación de que no acudimos a Dios pidiendo que nos salve sino cuando estamos en un apuro. Hoy el papel de Pedro, como aparece en todo el Nuevo Testamento, es ser un signo o representación de cada miembro de la Iglesia y de toda la Iglesia. Nuestra historia es el relato que se narra hoy sobre la fe de Pedro. Lo que puede aumentar nuestra fe es que aunque Cristo nos llama a encarar con valentía las tormentas de la vida, si las atravesamos con los ojos de la fe fijados en él, nada hemos de temer. Aunque demos un traspie o nos hundamos, basta gritar "¡Señor, sálvame!" para conocer la firmeza con la que Dios nos toma de la mano. Entonces, protegidos dentro de los muros de la fe, las tormentas que nos azoten no nos vencerán.

Los Siete Sacramentos: Vida con Cristo Eucaristía

1414 En cuanto sacrificio, la Eucaristía es ofrecida también en reparación de los pecados de los vivos y los difuntos, y para obtener de Dios beneficios espirituales o temporales.

1415 El que quiere recibir a Cristo en la Comunión eucarística debe hallarse en estado de gracia. Si uno tiene conciencia de haber pecado mortalmente no debe acercarse a la Eucaristía sin haber recibido previamente la absolución en el sacramento de la Penitencia.

1416 La Sagrada Comunión del Cuerpo y de la Sangre de Cristo acrecienta la unión del comulgante con el Señor, le perdona los pecados veniales y lo preserva de pecados graves. Puesto que los lazos de caridad entre el comulgante y Cristo son reforzados, la recepción de este sacramento fortalece la unidad de la Iglesia, Cuerpo místico de Cristo.

1417 La Iglesia recomienda vivamente a los fieles que reciban la sagrada comunión cuando participen en la celebración de la Eucaristía; y les impone la obligación de hacerlo al menos una vez al año.

1418 Puesto que Cristo mismo está presente en el Sacramento del Altar es preciso honrarlo con culto de adoración. "La visita al Santísimo Sacramento es una prueba de gratitud, un signo de amor y un deber de adoración hacia Cristo, nuestro Señor" (MF).

1419 Cristo, que pasó de este mundo al Padre, nos da en la Eucaristía la prenda de la gloria que tendremos junto a Él: la participación en el Santo Sacrificio nos identifica con su Corazón, sostiene nuestras fuerzas a lo largo del peregrinar de esta vida, nos hace desear la Vida eterna y nos une ya desde ahora a la Iglesia del cielo, a la Santa Virgen María y a todos los santos.
