

The Roman Catholic Parish of Holy Trinity Church
 Hackensack~Teaneck, New Jersey

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time
17 September 2017

Holy Trinity Church is a multiethnic community reflective of her Catholic tradition, united in one holy, catholic, and apostolic faith. Together we desire to adore the Triune God with the same reverence and devotion as do our Blessed Mother and all the saints. We invite all Catholics who have moved into the Hackensack~Teaneck area to join us in worship and register as members of our parish. We invite those interested in becoming Catholic to visit and join us in our faith, good works and devotion.

Prayer for Our Troops

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Amen.

The Seven Sacraments: Life with Christ Holy Orders

1590 St. Paul said to his disciple Timothy: "I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands" (2Tim 1:6), and "If any one aspires to the office of bishop, he desires a noble task." (1 Tim 3:1) To Titus he said: "This is why I left you in Crete, that you amend what was defective, and appoint presbyters in every town, as I directed you" (Titus 1:5).

1591 The whole Church is a priestly people. Through Baptism all the faithful share in the priesthood of Christ. This participation is called the "common priesthood of the faithful." Based on this common priesthood and ordered to its service, there exists another participation in the mission of Christ: the ministry conferred by the sacrament of Holy Orders, where the task is to serve in the name and in the person of Christ the Head in the midst of the community.

1592 The ministerial priesthood differs in essence from the common priesthood of the faithful because it confers a sacred power for the service of the faithful. The ordained ministers exercise their service for the People of God by teaching (munus docendi), divine worship (munus liturgicum) and pastoral governance (munus regendi).

1593 Since the beginning, the ordained ministry has been conferred and exercised in three degrees: that of bishops, that of presbyters, and that of deacons. The ministries conferred by ordination are irreplaceable for the organic structure of the Church: without the bishop, presbyters, and deacons, one cannot speak of the Church (cf St. Ignatius of Antioch, Ad Trall. 3,1).

Sisters of Charity Appeal

This weekend, September 16-17, we welcome back Sr. Emily Walsh. She is making an appeal for the support of the Sisters of Charity and their retired sisters.

FORGIVE OTHERS

There are many kinds of alms the giving of which helps us to obtain pardon for our sins; but none is greater than that by which we forgive from our heart a sin that someone has committed against us.

—St. Augustine

Forgiving someone can be very difficult. Many emotions interfere and pride (superbia) rears its ugly head. St. Peter asks the Lord how many times does he have to forgive, “Seven times?” You see Peter was being very magnanimous. The tradition was to forgive three times. He is offering 7, but our Lord tops that with 77 times. Wow! How can we do that. To be hurt over and over again and still forgive? Also our pride gets in the way. Won’t people think us the fool and won’t the offender think us to be patsies?

Look at it this way. We have offended God in many and varied ways in our short lives, but each time we come to Him and confess, asking forgiveness, seeking absolution, and desiring the full love and grace that God gives to us. If you think you have not offended God then you are really lost. Even the saints and the popes sought God’s forgiveness. In fact the closer you grow in your relationship with the Lord, the more you realize your sins against Him and your neighbor. Remember this, where sin abounds, grace abounds all the more. That is because when we sin, we seek his grace, forgiveness, mercy, and friendship even more deeply. The true Christian is not sinless. He is the one who loves God, his neighbor as himself, and knows when to ask forgiveness of Him and of his neighbor. The Christian also forgives as God has forgiven him. Forgive, forgive and forgive and you will be forgiven, forgiven, forgiven....

Pax Christi, Fr. Paul

Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father. They did not speak to each other again.

Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon. The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: “Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?”

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As Saint Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord.

Jesus’ parable in today’s Gospel reminds us of God’s compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way.

Healing the Wounds of Abortion

The psychological & spiritual wounds from abortion can be vast and crippling. You may feel stuck in life and not know why, or even numb, not able to name the buried pain or recognize the symptoms of post abortion syndrome. An abortion can often have a devastating impact on the father and grandparents of the aborted child and the friend/s of their parents, as well. Do not continue to hide in shame, fear or confusion. The Rachel’s Vineyard retreat is a chance to focus on this difficult time in your life while moving you through a non-judgmental group process. This is done in a supportive atmosphere with confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. The program is designed to help both women and men to revive their hope by experiencing the tender mercy of God in Christ Jesus.

If you’re suffering from a past abortion experience and have isolated yourself from help and forgiveness, we’ll be there!

There is no fee to participate and pre-registration is not needed. Please call Lauren Egan at 973-497-4327 or email eganlaur@rcan.org for further information.

IS YOUR MARRIAGE A VALID SACRAMENT?

If you were married civilly, that is not in the Catholic Church before a priest or deacon, it is not a valid sacramental marriage. This is an impediment to receiving the Eucharist and other sacraments. For a marriage to be valid in the Catholic Church, the marriage must be in a Catholic Church or Chapel and officiated by an authorized Catholic priest or deacon along with 2 witnesses. (There are limited interfaith exceptions with proper permission.)

I invite you to speak with one of our priests if there are any questions or if indeed you wish to validate your marriage. The process can be very simple and your marriage will now be blessed by the Church. Once the Marriage is convalidated, that is blessed in the Church, you will be able to receive the Eucharist, make Sacramental Confession, and receive the other sacraments.

Making Those Funeral Arrangements

Planning or even thinking about one's own funeral is unpleasant and therefore something we tend to push far out of our minds. When the time finally comes it leaves the family stressed and overwhelmed by all the decisions they must make. You can relieve some of this stress for your loved ones by planning your Funeral Liturgy (Mass of Christian Burial). Lynn Berhalter would like to assist you in choosing the Scriptures to be read at your funeral Mass according to the archdiocesan guidelines. She can also help you choose the hymns that will add to the solemnity of your Mass. This is simple to do and it helps fulfill your wishes and eases your families' burden.

Make an appointment to see Lynn at the rectory to get started.

Your plans will be kept on file at Holy Trinity Church and may be amended anytime if you wish. Planning ahead ensures your family that the readings and music you desired are carried out and they need not worry. It is a beautiful final gesture, a gift to those who grieve. Call 201-343-5170 now and make your appointment.

The Catholic University of America is unique among universities in the United States—even among Catholic universities. Established by Pope Leo XIII and the U.S. bishops in 1887, it is the national university of the Catholic Church. In addition to alumni who hail from this diocese, Catholic University claims one third of the U.S. bishops and 12,000 priests and religious as alumni. In Washington, D.C., the University provides an education based in the Catholic intellectual tradition to almost 7,000 students through its 12 schools. This weekend, we are taking up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America. Your support will enable Catholic University to expand its impact in preparing the next generation of leadership for our Church and nation. We appreciate your generosity. SINGLE PARENT SUPPORT GROUPS

According to US Census data, 30% of children living in New Jersey currently live in a single parent household. Single Parenting is difficult, non-stop and often goes unappreciated. For many single parents, they are a provider, nurturer and disciplinarian. It can be overwhelming trying to carry out each of these roles. The Family Life Office is offering a support group specific to the needs of single parents. There are currently two parishes in the Archdiocese of Newark who offer this support group for single parents.

¿QUE PASA?

PERDÓN

Unos diez años antes, un padre e hijo se distanciaron cuando el negocio en el que eran socios se fue a bancarrota. El hijo culpó al padre. No se hablaron más.

Entonces el padre se puso gravemente enfermo. La madre llamó al hijo y le dijo que viniera a verlo pronto. El hijo entró con vergüenza a su habitación en el hospital. El padre hizo un gesto para que se acercara y susurró: "¿Acaso pensaste que podrías hacer algo que me hiciera dejar de amarte?"

El rencor y la cólera son abominables, nos dice la primera lectura de Sirácide. Piensa en tu fin. Deja de odiar. Vive conforme a los mandamientos. Como escribe san Pablo en Romanos, para el Señor vivimos y para el Señor morimos.

En el decimosexto aniversario del 11 de septiembre de 2001, para nosotros en Estados Unidos todavía no nos es fácil perdonar. Sin embargo, la parábola de Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy nos recuerda la compasión de Dios. El inmenso pecado de la humanidad ha sido perdonado y borrado del libro. Tenemos que perdonar a otros de igual manera.

PERDONA A OTROS

Hay muchos tipos de limosnas que nos ayudan a obtener el perdón de nuestros pecados; pero ninguna es superior a cuando perdonamos de corazón un pecado que se ha hecho contra nosotros. —San Agustín

Los Siete Sacramentos: Vida con Cristo El Sacramento del Orden

1590 San Pablo dice a su discípulo Timoteo: "Te recomiendo que reavives el carisma de Dios que está en ti por la imposición de mis manos" (2 Tm 1,6), y "si alguno aspira al cargo de obispo, desea una noble función" (1 Tm 3,1). A Tito decía: "El motivo de haberte dejado en Creta, fue para que acabaras de organizar lo que faltaba y establecieras presbíteros en cada ciudad, como yo te ordené" (Tt 1,5).

1591 La Iglesia entera es un pueblo sacerdotal. Por el Bautismo, todos los fieles participan del sacerdocio de Cristo. Esta participación se llama "sacerdocio común de los fieles". A partir de este sacerdocio y al servicio del mismo existe otra participación en la misión de Cristo: la del ministerio conferido por el sacramento del Orden, cuya tarea es servir en nombre y en la representación de Cristo-Cabeza en medio de la comunidad.

1592 El sacerdocio ministerial difiere esencialmente del sacerdocio común de los fieles porque confiere un poder sagrado para el servicio de los fieles. Los ministros ordenados ejercen su servicio en el pueblo de Dios mediante la enseñanza (munus docendi), el culto divino (munus liturgicum) y por el gobierno pastoral (munus regendi).

1593 Desde los orígenes, el ministerio ordenado fue conferido y ejercido en tres grados: el de los obispos, el de los presbíteros y el de los diáconos. Los ministerios conferidos por la ordenación son insustituibles para la estructura orgánica de la Iglesia: sin el obispo, los presbíteros y los diáconos no se puede hablar de Iglesia (cf. San Ignacio de Antioquía, Epistula ad Trallianos 3,1).
