Life with Christ: The Creed
I believe in God the Creator of Man

380 "Father, . . . you formed man in your own likeness and set him over the whole world to serve you, his creator, and to rule over all creatures" (Roman Missal, EP IV).
 381 Man is predestined to reproduce the image of God's Son made man, the "image of the invisible God" (Col 1:15), so that Christ shall be the first-born of a multitude of brothers and sisters (Eph 1:3-6; Rom 8:29).
 382 "Man, though made of body and soul, is a unity". the doctrine of the faith affirms that the spiritual and immortal soul is created immediately by God.
 383 "God did not create man a solitary being. From the beginning, "male and female he created them." This partnership of man and woman constitutes the first form of communion between persons" .
 384 Revelation makes known to us the state of original holiness and justice of man and woman before sin: from their friendship with God flowed the happiness of their existence in paradise.

It's mercy I desire not sacrifice.

(Hosea 6:6, Matthew 9:13)

This quote from Scripture has always confounded me. We speak so much about the importance of sacrifice. Abraham's faith was tested in his willingness to obey God and sacrifice his beloved son Isaac. God in turn offered his beloved Son on the cross as a sacrifice to wipe away man's sin. So why would he say, "It's mercy I desire not sacrifice?"

First, to practice sacrifice without mercy is empty. How many bulls and lambs did the Jews need to sacrifice in order to slake God's thirst? He already owned all that is, so why did He need any blood? It was ancient practice that to appease the gods, people would offer sacrifices, even human sacrifices including their own children! But our God, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob is not a vengeful god like the gods of the pagans. He is a God of love and mercy. Unlike the gods who would seek revenge on their human subjects like tyrants, the LORD God like a Father would guide and protect his children though he was known to chastise them when they forgot who loved them. God was always showing his mercy. The story of Hosea teaches us this unconditional love. In the story, God orders Hosea to marry himself a harlot. Her name was Gomer. She had a few children with him, but soon she was running off with other men. But each time she returned to Hosea, he forgave her and received her back. Through the centuries this had been the love story between the LORD God and the People Israel. They would go off worshipping other gods, be destroyed, realize their waywardness and God would take them back. So while God would suffer their fickleness, He always showed mercy recognizing that his sacrificial love was practiced with mercy.

Which brings us to the second point: Mercy is itself a sacrifice. When God showed mercy to the Israelites, he was giving of himself. He would put aside his omnipotence, allowing his own to humiliate Him in their unfaithfulness. He would lower himself to their whims in order to win them back. He would chastise the ones He loved in order to form them in their faith and obedience as they moved towards salvation.

At the cross we see the greatest of all sacrifices: God offering on the cross his Son. Christ's blood would pour out like the blood of bulls and rams, but this time it would not only atone for sin, but would become the means of salvation. The Cross is a sacrifice of mercy. That Friday afternoon, Mercy itself was crucified and from that cross flowed water and blood, the water that cleanses us and the blood that nourishes us. It is from the cross that our Sacraments receive their power. From the cross all graces flow. Mercy has come to us not through the empty sacrifices of animals (animals do not willingly offer themselves), but by the full and complete sacrifice of the God-man: full of mercy, full of love, full of grace.

This Lent as we make our "sacrifices" let's be sure these sacrifices are not empty, meaningless. Show Mercy. What good would it be to forego chocolate but hold a grudge against your next-door neighbor, not visit your father at the home, or ignore those in need?

The 2019 Mass Book

"He then took up a collection among all his soldiers, which he sent to Jerusalem to provide for an expiatory sacrifice. In doing this he acted in a very excellent and noble way, inasmuch as he had the resurrection of the dead in view; for if he were not expecting the fallen to rise again, it would have been useless and foolish to pray for them in death. But if he did this with a view to the splendid reward that awaits those who had gone to rest in godliness, it was a holy and pious thought. Thus he made atonement for the dead that they might be freed from this sin" (2 Maccabees 12:43-46).

Making Those Funeral Arrangements

Planning or even thinking about one's own funeral is unpleasant and therefore something we tend to push far out of our minds. When the time finally comes it leaves the family stressed and overwhelmed by all the decisions they must make. You can relieve some of this stress for your loved ones by planning your Funeral Liturgy (Mass of Christian Burial). Lynn Berhalter would like to assist you in choosing the Scriptures to be read at your funeral Mass according to the archdiocesan guidelines. She can also help you choose the hymns that will add to the solemnity of your Mass. This is simple to do and it helps fulfill your wishes and eases your families' burden.

Make an appointment to see Lynn at the rectory to get started.

Your plans will be kept on file at Holy Trinity Church and may be amended anytime if you wish. Planning ahead ensures your family that the readings and music you desired are carried out and they need not worry. It is a beautiful final gesture, a gift to those who grieve. Call 201-343-5170 now and make your appointment.

¿QUE PASA?

LA OBEDIENCIA DE ABRAHAM Y JESÚS

Dios puso a prueba a Abraham pidiéndole no un sacrificio ordinario, el cual requería que se quemara parcialmente la carne y se dividiera entre Dios y el pueblo y fuera consumido por los que hacían el sacrificio, sino que le pidió un holocausto, la quema completa del animal expiatorio. Este tipo de sacrificio consagraba la ofrenda solo a Dios. Esto es lo que Dios le pedía a Abraham en su ofrenda de su único hijo, Isaac. Cuando Abraham demostró su obediencia, fue suficiente. El relato de la Sagrada Escritura de hoy predice la finalización de los sacrificios de sangre de la vieja alianza en la nueva alianza: la sangre del Hijo de Dios, la cual se nos ofrece en la cruz y en la Eucaristía. La obediencia de Abraham prefigura la obediencia de Jesús a la promesa de salvación de Dios. La recompensa de la obediencia de Abraham yace en el nacimiento, por medio de Isaac, de muchas naciones. La recompensa de la obediencia de Jesús yace en la salvación de todas las personas por los siglos de los siglos.

Vida con Cristo: El Crzdo Crzdo en Dios, el Crzador del Hombre

380 "A imagen tuya creaste al hombre y le encomendaste el universo entero, para que, sirviéndote sólo a ti, su Creador, dominara todo lo creado" (Misal Romano, Plegaria eucarística IV).
381 El hombre es predestinado a reproducir la imagen del Hijo de Dios hecho hombre —"imagen del Dios invisible" (Col 1,15) —, para que Cristo sea el primogénito de una multitud de hermanos y de hermanas (cf. Ef 1,3-6; Rm 8,29).

382 El hombre es corpore et anima unus ("una unidad de cuerpo y alma") La doctrina de la fe afirma que el alma espiritual e inmortal es creada de forma inmediata por Dios.

383 «Dios no creó al hombre solo: en efecto, desde el principio "los creó hombre y mujer" (Gn 1,27). Esta asociación constituye la primera forma de comunión entre personas».

384 La revelación nos da a conocer el estado de santidad y de justicia originales del hombre y la mujer antes del pecado: de su amistad con Dios nacía la felicidad de su existencia en el paraíso.
