Life with Christ: The Creed
The Fall

413 "God did not make death, and he does not delight in the death of the living. It was through the devil's envy that death entered the world".
 414 Satan or the devil and the other demons are fallen angels who have freely refused to serve God and his plan. Their choice against God is definitive. They try to associate man in their revolt against God.
 415 "Although set by God in a state of rectitude man, enticed by the evil one, abused his freedom at the very start of history. He lifted himself up against God, and sought to attain his goal apart from him".
 416 By his sin Adam, as the first man, lost the original holiness and justice he had received from God, not only for himself but for all human beings.
 417 Adam and Eve transmitted to their descendants human nature wounded by their own first sin and hence deprived of original holiness and justice; this deprivation is called "original sin".
 418 As a result of original sin, human nature is weakened in its powers, subject to ignorance, suffering and the domination of death, and inclined to sin (this inclination is called "concupiscence").
 419 "We therefore hold, with the Council of Trent, that original sin is transmitted with human nature, "by propagation, not by imitation" and that it is... 'proper to each'" (Paul VI).
 420 The victory that Christ won over sin has given us greater blessings than those which sin had taken from us: "where sin increased, grace abounded all the more" (Rom 5:20).
 421 Christians believe that "the world has been established and kept in being by the Creator's love; has fallen into slavery to sin but has been set free by Christ, crucified and risen to break the power of the evil one. . ."
 Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2nd Ed. Libreria Editrice Vaticana, 1997

Advanced Directives/Living Wills/Health Surrogate

Recently one of our dear parishioners, Desmond "Desi" Ward passed away. For nearly 8 weeks Desi was in the hospital suffering from the ravages of a terminal illness. Early on he was given a tracheotomy to help him breathe but of course now he could not speak. I had visited before the trach and administered the last rites: anointing of the sick, viaticum, and the apostolic blessing. I then went away on my retreat to Jerusalem expecting that he most likely would have passed before my return, however he was still in the hospital. I visited him last about a week ago, I heard his confession with nods of yesses and shakes of the head for no's as I went through the Ten Commandments. I absolved him and together we prayed his penance. I asked him if he were afraid and he nodded yes. I encouraged him not to be afraid, that Jesus is with him. Then I prayed the Divine Mercy Chaplet as he fell asleep: it was the last time I saw him. Desi was a faithful Christian who attended Mass weekly and celebrated the Sacrament of Penance & Reconciliation regularly. He prayed for his family and the guys at the Y all the while struggling with his alcoholism. He always kept the faith. On Monday this past week the ventilator was disconnected. Desi's struggle to live was lost and he surrendered himself to the mercy of God.

Desi was put on a ventilator not to save his life but to allow him to breathe though his prognosis was dim. He was dying but there was no one to express his wishes since he was unconscious at the time that the ventilator was connected. The Church teaches us that life is sacred. We are required to use the natural gifts God has given us to preserve life and to heal the wounds. However the Church is neither unreasonable nor irrational. When one is deathly ill, one can refuse extraordinary means to extend one's days on this earth. It is neither immoral nor unethical to refuse extraordinary means when it has been determined that the illness is terminal and there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. And so we can with good conscience refuse extraordinary means. (I remind you that suicide and euthanasia are never an option even with the extreme suffering of the patient. To directly kill another person or oneself is always a grave sin, and to do this deliberately and with full consent is a mortal sin.)

It behooves us to complete an Advanced Directive so that our wishes are clear to our family, our doctors, and our closest friends. Also we need to designate a Health Care Surrogate, who will assure us that our wishes will be carried out. I have provided for you copies of the Catholic Declaration on Life and Death (Living Will) and Designation of Health Care Surrogate contained herein. Please avail yourselves of this copy (or go to: <https://www.flacathconf.org/declaration-on-life-and-death>), complete it and make copies for your Surrogate, your Doctors and your Executor. Keep a copy at home and bring it to the hospital in case of emergencies.

I have also created a Featured Link on the parish website (www.holytrinity1861.org). It is the link at the bottom of the list on the right hand side of the home page.

KEEP HOLY THE SABBATH

There's no better way to deepen our Lenten practice than to review the Ten Commandments. The first three, having to do with our right relationship to God, get the most ink. The one we busy people probably have the most problem with is keeping holy the Sabbath.

If we take this commandment literally, babies will go undiapered and dishes will stay on the table, or perhaps meals will not be served. The sick will go unattended and nothing that has anything to do with physical labor will be done. Is mental labor really work? How about changing that dirty diaper (poor baby!)?

We need to depend on God to discern how to observe real Sabbath time in our lives. The point of this commandment is that God has given us a great gift: one whole day per week when we are free to rest, worship God, sing, feast, love, and rejoice. As Psalm 19 proclaims: "The law of the LORD is perfect, / refreshing the soul" (19:8). Our Sabbath rest is a great gift, to be received from God with joy, not with nitpicking.

The 2019 Mass Book

"He then took up a collection among all his soldiers, which he sent to Jerusalem to provide for an expiatory sacrifice. In doing this he acted in a very excellent and noble way, inasmuch as he had the resurrection of the dead in view; for if he were not expecting the fallen to rise again, it would have been useless and foolish to pray for them in death. But if he did this with a view to the splendid reward that awaits those who had gone to rest in godliness, it was a holy and pious thought. Thus he made atonement for the dead that they might be freed from this sin" (2 Maccabees 12:43-46).

Masses for 2019

We are accepting Mass Intentions for 2019 at the rectory. Intentions may be offered for the dead to gain indulgences. You may offer Mass for deceased individuals or for families. No more than 3 Sunday Masses can be offered at this time. One does not offer Mass for saints or the Blessed Mother since they are already in heaven.

Making Those Funeral Arrangements

Planning or even thinking about one's own funeral is unpleasant and therefore something we tend to push far out of our minds. When the time finally comes it leaves the family stressed and overwhelmed by all the decisions they must make. You can relieve some of this stress for your loved ones by planning your Funeral Liturgy (Mass of Christian Burial). Lynn Berhalter would like to assist you in choosing the Scriptures to be read at your funeral Mass according to the archdiocesan guidelines. She can also help you choose the hymns that will add to the solemnity of your Mass. This is simple to do and it helps fulfill your wishes and eases your families' burden.

Make an appointment to see Lynn at the rectory to get started.

Your plans will be kept on file at Holy Trinity Church and may be amended anytime if you wish. Planning ahead ensures your family that the readings and music you desired are carried out and they need not worry. It is a beautiful final gesture, a gift to those who grieve. Call 201-343-5170 now and make your appointment.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS

The food pantry is in need of the following donations: Hot & Cold Cereal, canned vegetables, soup, tuna fish, pasta, rice, beans, tomato sauce, coffee, tea, peanut butter, soap, shampoo. Please bring them to the vestibule in the rear of the church.

¿QUE PASA?

SANTIFICA EL SÁBADO

No hay mejor forma de profundizar nuestras devociones de Cuaresma que repasar los Diez Mandamientos. Los primeros tres, los cuales se refieren a una buena relación con Dios, son más extensos. Quizás el que más nos cueste a nosotros, que siempre estamos tan ocupados, es santificar las fiestas refiriéndose al día del Señor.

Si tomáramos este mandamiento literalmente, no cambiaríamos a los bebés, los platos quedarían en la mesa y quizás ni siquiera serviríamos las comidas. Los enfermos no serían atendidos y no se haría nada que estuviera relacionado con el trabajo físico. ¿Se considera trabajo al trabajo mental? ¿Y qué hay de cambiarle el pañal al bebé (¡pobrecito!)?

Debemos depender de Dios para discernir de qué manera debemos respetar y santificar el día del Señor en nuestras vidas. La clave de este mandamiento es que Dios nos ha dado un gran regalo: un día entero por semana en el cual somos libres para descansar, rendirle culto a Dios, cantar, celebrar, amar y alegrarnos. Como proclama el Salmo 19 (18): "Los mandatos del Señor son rectos y alegran el corazón" (19 [18]:8). Nuestro descanso del domingo es un gran regalo que debemos recibir de Dios con alegría, no poniendo peros.

Vida con Cristo: El Crzdo

La Caída

413 "No fue Dios quien hizo la muerte ni se recrea en la destrucción de los vivientes [...] por envidia del diablo entró la muerte en el mundo".

414 Satán o el diablo y los otros demonios son ángeles caídos por haber rechazado libremente servir a Dios y su designio. Su opción contra Dios es definitiva. Intentan asociar al hombre en su rebelión contra Dios.

415 "Constituido por Dios en la justicia, el hombre, sin embargo, persuadido por el Maligno, abusó de su libertad, desde el comienzo de la historia, levantándose contra Dios e intentando alcanzar su propio fin al margen de Dios" (GS 13,1).

416 Por su pecado, Adán, en cuanto primer hombre, perdió la santidad y la justicia originales que había recibido de Dios no solamente para él, sino para todos los humanos.

417 Adán y Eva transmitieron a su descendencia la naturaleza humana herida por su primer pecado, privada por tanto de la santidad y la justicia originales. Esta privación es llamada "pecado original".

418 Como consecuencia del pecado original, la naturaleza humana quedó debilitada en sus fuerzas, sometida a la ignorancia, al sufrimiento y al dominio de la muerte, e inclinada al pecado (inclinación llamada "concupiscencia").

419 «Mantenemos, pues, siguiendo el Concilio de Trento, que el pecado original se transmite, juntamente con la naturaleza humana, "por propagación, no por imitación" y que "se halla como propio en cada uno"» (Pablo VI, Credo del Pueblo de Dios, 16).

420 La victoria sobre el pecado obtenida por Cristo nos ha dado bienes mejores que los que nos quitó el pecado: "Donde abundó el pecado, sobreabundó la gracia" (Rm 5,20).

421 "Los fieles cristianos creen que el mundo [...] ha sido creado y conservado por el amor del Creador, colocado ciertamente bajo la esclavitud del pecado, pero liberado por Cristo crucificado y resucitado, una vez que fue quebrantado el poder del Maligno..." (GS 2,2).
