Life with Christ: The Creed
Eternal Life

"I BELIEVE IN LIFE EVERLASTING"

1051 Every man receives his eternal recompense in his immortal soul from the moment of his death in a particular judgment by Christ, the judge of the living and the dead.

1052 "We believe that the souls of all who die in Christ's grace . . . are the People of God beyond death. On the day of resurrection, death will be definitively conquered, when these souls will be reunited with their bodies" (Paul VI, CPG # 28).

1053 "We believe that the multitude of those gathered around Jesus and Mary in Paradise forms the Church of heaven, where in eternal blessedness they see God as he is and where they are also, to various degrees, associated with the holy angels in the divine governance exercised by Christ in glory, by interceding for us and helping our weakness by their fraternal concern" (Paul VI, CPG # 29).

1054 Those who die in God's grace and friendship imperfectly purified, although they are assured of their eternal salvation, undergo a purification after death, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of God.

1055 By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers, especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf.

STEWARDSHIP

Last Sunday's Collection/Colecta de Domingo Pasado: $7708.00

For you were called to freedom, brethren; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love be servants of one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself' (Gal 5:13-14).

It being the Fourth of July this week, I would like to reflect on the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution which was ratified on December 15, 1791. It states: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

This Amendment prevents Congress from making any law respecting an establishment of religion. In other words we do not have a state religion like England, Greece, Costa Rica, Malta, and most of the Middle East and North Africa. At the time of the writing of the Constitution, most countries had a state religion in Europe and that was strictly enforced. In France, Huguenots were massacred. In England Catholicism was forbidden. In the colonies, each colony had a "state" or dominant religion, so when the Constitution was written, Catholics in particular pushed for this since they were very much in the minority at the time and feared that the Protestants (Anglicans, Congregationalists, etc.) would oppress them.

Second the Amendment states that congress shall make no law prohibiting the free exercise of religion. But this is not absolute. Sometimes a religion may call on human sacrifice or have a doctrine that calls on anarchism. In such cases the free exercise is checked for the good of the nation and peace. In 1878 the US Supreme Court declared 'that it is time enough for the rightful purposes of civil government for its officers to interfere [only] when [religious] principles break out into overt acts against peace and good order.' Here is found the true distinction between what properly belongs to the church and what to the State. The decision also stated: "Freedom of religion means freedom to hold an opinion or belief, but not to take action in violation of social duties or subversive to good order."

Third the Amendment prohibits abridging the freedom of speech, the freedom of the press, the right to peaceably assemble. With these rights we are guaranteed to speak of our faith freely and unencumbered not only in church but in the public square. Today, this right is often infringed upon. Some bakers have not wanted to use their artistic talents to create a cake for homosexual couples' weddings since it goes against their religious beliefs. Some were sued, others lost their business. Finally the US Supreme Court backed the bakers in a recent decision.

Our right to freedom of religion and the free expression thereof is a God-given right which is backed up by the US Constitution. However these rights are interpreted by fearful men and women who can collapse to the whims of popular demand. If the current thinking is that homosexual unions are valid and good and we Christians believe that they are not god and invalid, do we have the right to exercise our conscience without being forced to accept what is abhorrent or contradictory to our beliefs? Do we have to celebrate their sodomy by baking their cakes, renting our catering halls, etc.? In Canada it is already forbidden to speak even from the pulpit against homosexuality designating it as hate speech. Is that attitude coming to America? How will the Constitution be interpreted by the Courts? Which right is greater or primary: the freedom of religion or the rights of the individual?

Yes we have a constitution that guarantees freedom of religion. Let us pray that our legal right is preserved as we know it to be and that we may worship in peace without being accused of hate speech or homophobia or the like.

A Prayer for Our Nation

God our Father,
Giver of life,
we entrust the United States of America to Your loving care.

You are the rock on which this nation was founded.
You alone are the true source of our cherished rights
to life,
liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Reclaim this land for Your glory and dwell among Your people.

Send Your Spirit to touch the hearts
of our nation's leaders.
Open their minds to the great worth of human life
and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom.

Remind Your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing Your will.

Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate,
Patroness of our land,
grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death."
Lead us into a new millennium of life.
We ask this through Christ Our Lord.

Amen.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As Independence Day draws near, we think of the men and women of the military who serve with courage and competence, some far from home. How does the Church accompany them? In 1939, Pope Pius XII created an independent jurisdiction of the Catholic Church called the "Military Vicariate." In 1985 Pope John Paul II created the "Archdiocese for Military Services, USA." Spanning the globe and serving nearly one and a half million Roman Catholics, more than one thousand priests minister in hospitals, on military bases of all the armed forces, on ships at sea, and on the battlefield. The AMS does not ordain priests, but accepts priests on loan from religious orders and dioceses.

In 1824 a Jesuit priest named Adam Marshall enlisted in the Navy and died at sea in 1825. He was assigned as a "schoolmaster," but he sought out and ministered to Catholic sailors. Twenty years later, President Polk was worried that the war with Mexico was seen as anti-Catholic, so he recruited two Jesuit priests to serve in the army as chaplains. At the time of the Civil War, only about ten percent of Americans were Catholic. Military policies forced Catholic soldiers to attend Protestant services. The Church protested this rule, and many priests volunteered to become chaplains. Their witness and the courage of the "Nuns of the Battlefield" (several orders of sisters who assisted Civil War victims) helped temper prejudice against Catholics and pave the way for the life and ministry of this vigorous and unique archdiocese.

AYÚDAME, SEÑOR

Hoy escuchamos lecturas que nos acercan al misterio de sufrimiento y muerte. En los últimos años hemos sido testigos de la devastación de vidas y propiedades a manos de tsunamis y huracanes. Muchos elevaron su lamento a Dios y preguntaron: "¿Por qué?" Esta es una expresión sincera de ira hacia un Dios que creemos da la vida. Cuando perdemos a un ser querido, puede que nos preguntemos por qué la presencia de Cristo no es suficiente para hacer que esa persona resucite, incluso de entre los muertos, como la pequeña niña del pasaje del Evangelio de hoy. Entonces alzamos la voz y preguntamos: "¿Por qué?" En momentos como estos, debemos acudir a la oración del salmista: "¡Escucha Señor y ten piedad de mí; Señor, socórreme". Recemos para que nuestro luto algún día se convierta en danza.

Vida con Cristo: El Credo La Vida Eterna

"CREO EN LA VIDA ETERNA"

1051 Al morir cada hombre recibe en su alma inmortal su retribución eterna en un juicio particular por Cristo, juez de vivos y de muertos.

1052 "Creemos que las almas de todos aquellos que mueren en la gracia de Cristo [...] constituyen el Pueblo de Dios después de la muerte, la cual será destruida totalmente el día de la Resurrección, en el que estas almas se unirán con sus cuerpos" (Credo del Pueblo de Dios, 28).

1053 "Creemos que la multitud de aquellas almas que con Jesús y María se congregan en el paraíso, forma la Iglesia celestial, donde ellas, gozando de la bienaventuranza eterna, ven a Dios como Él es, y participan también, ciertamente en grado y modo diverso, juntamente con los santos ángeles, en el gobierno divino de las cosas, que ejerce Cristo glorificado, como quiera que interceden por nosotros y con su fraterna solicitud ayudan grandemente a nuestra flaqueza" (Credo del Pueblo de Dios, 29).

1054 Los que mueren en la gracia y la amistad de Dios, pero imperfectamente purificados, aunque están seguros de su salvación eterna, sufren una purificación después de su muerte, a fin de obtener la santidad necesaria para entrar en el gozo de Dios.

1055 En virtud de la "comunidad de los santos", la Iglesia encomienda los difuntos a la misericordia de Dios y ofrece sufragios en su favor, en particular el santo sacrificio eucarístico.

1056 Siguiendo las enseñanzas de Cristo, la Iglesia advierte a los fieles de la "triste y lamentable realidad de la muerte eterna" (DCG 69), llamada también "infierno". Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, 2ª Edición. Libreria Editrice Vaticana, 1997
