Those who are ill or feel ill are not obligated to attend Mass on Sundays. Holy Thursday and Good Friday are not obligatory.

Dear friends,

“These are the times that try men’s souls ...”

Although written under very different circumstances, this sentiment seems appropriate to the times we are in. The circumstances surrounding COVID-19 demand prudence, but we must never give in to fear. Recall the words of Jesus: “Fear is useless, what is needed is trust.” (Mk 5:36 NAB)

It seems like this is a perfect time to realize that so much of what typically would distract us in the past is no longer present: no March madness, no sports of any kind on TV, Broadway has been closed down, restaurants are closing early etc. In addition, many schools are closed, and the workplace has been turned upside down.

SAINT TURIBIUS OF MOGROVEJO (1538-1606)

March 23

In times of crisis, God always surprises the Church with unlikely saints, through whom Christ’s light radiates beyond their local communities to illumine the universal Church. Charles Borromeo was such a saint: appointed Archbishop of Milan at twenty-one by his papal uncle, epitomizing the corruption that the reformers condemned, Charles instead inspired a revival that reinvigorated a Church devastated by the Reformation. His less well-known contemporary, Turibius of Mongrovejo, was God’s “saintly surprise” in the New World. Spanish-born lawyer, professor, head of the feared Inquisition, Turibius was still a layman when a grateful king appointed him Archbishop of far-off Lima. Once in Peru, however, Turibius was appalled at the abuse of indigenous peoples by the occupying conquistadores—his fellow countrymen—and by the complicity of the clergy. He became the natives’ devoted advocate, building churches, schools, hospitals, and the first seminary in the Americas, publishing catechisms and prayerbooks in the native languages he painstakingly mastered. Four hundred years later, whenever Pope Benedict welcomed Latin American bishops to Rome, he always invoked “the shining example of San Toribio.”

CHARITY

If you truly want to help the soul of your neighbor, you should approach God first with all your heart. Ask him simply to fill you with charity, the greatest of all virtues; with it you can accomplish what you desire.

—St. Vincent Ferrer

Charitable Gift Annuities

Making a significant gift to your parish can increase your bottom line! By making a gift for a charitable gift annuity, you receive an income tax deduction and annuity payments for life. Plus, part of each payment is tax-free. Learn more about this wonderful opportunity by contacting Theresa Lynch, Planned Giving Manager, Archdiocese of Newark at (973) 497-4042 or by email at Theresa.Lynch@rcan.org.

This is an extraordinary opportunity for us to quiet our spirits and allow the Lord to speak to us and guide us! We still have a few weeks of Lent remaining, let us allow the Lord to make them the best weeks of Lent we have ever lived. (I’m grateful to Marty Buganski, the senior coordinator of the People of Hope Catholic Community for these thoughts. They capture well what was already in my heart.)

2020 Annual Appeal
Shining the Light of Christ

As disciples, we are called to radiate the love of God in our work, our relationships, our service and our giving. As a Catholic faith community, our common worship, hospitality, pastoral care and ministry reflect this love to the wider community. By sharing our time, unique talents and personal treasure, we participate in shining the Light of Christ ever more brightly.

So far we have 13% of our goal from only 24 donors. Keep up the good work. Our goal is $44,001.

Please give a prayerful donation to this cause of good. You can give in two ways:

1. Complete the donation envelope which can be found in the church at the doors. Please be sure to indicate our parish Holy Trinity 096. You can give some now and pay the balance over ten months.
2. Go to the Archdiocesan website site www.rcan.org/sharing. Make your pledge and remember to indicate our parish Holy Trinity Parish in Hackensack under “designation”.

Making Those Funeral Arrangements

Planning or even thinking about one's own funeral is unpleasant and therefore something we tend to push far out of our minds. When the time finally comes it leaves the family stressed and overwhelmed by all the decisions they must make. You can relieve some of this stress for your loved ones by planning your Funeral Liturgy (Mass of Christian Burial). Lynn Berhalter would like to assist you in choosing the Scriptures to be read at your funeral Mass according to the archdiocesan guidelines. She can also help you choose the hymns that will add to the solemnity of your Mass. This is simple to do and it helps fulfill your wishes and eases your family's burden.

Make an appointment to see Lynn at the rectory to get started.

Your plans will be kept on file at Holy Trinity Church and may be amended anytime you wish. Planning ahead ensures your family that the readings and music you desired are carried out and they need not worry. It is a beautiful final gesture, a gift to those who grieve. Call 201-343-5170 now and make your appointment.

Stella Coeli (Star of Heaven)

The Star of Heaven that nourished the lord, drove away the plague of death which thy first parents of man brought into the world.

May this bright Star now vouchsafe to extinguish that foul constellation whose battles have slain the people with the wound of death.

O most pious Star of the Sea, preserve us from pestilence; hear us, O Lady, for thy Son honors thee by denying Thee nothing. Save us, O Jesus, for whom thy Virgin Mother supplicates Thee.

V: Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God,

R: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God of mercy, God of forbearance, God of forgiveness, who was moved to compassion for the affliction of your people, and who said to the Angel devastating your people: "Stay your hand," for the love of that glorious Star, at whose dearest breast You graciously fed against the poison of our sins; grant the help of your grace, that as your Mother the Blessed Virgin Mary, and St. Raphael, your archangel, we be safely freed from every disease and from an unprovided death, and that we may be mercifully saved from the assault of utter ruin. Through You, Christ Jesus, King of Glory, who lives and reigns, world without end. Amen.

¿QUE PASA?

“Despierta, tú que duermes; levántate de entre los muertos y Cristo será tu luz” (Efesios 5:14). Estamos a medio camino en la jornada de Cuaresma para la conversión. Como siempre, Dios no se da por vencido con nosotros, especialmente con aquellos que “duermen” en el camino a la conversión. Los más grandes relatos de conversión se proclaman en estas semanas finales de la Cuaresma. Estos tienen el poder de sacudirnos de nuestro sueño. El relato del Evangelio de hoy sobre la curación del ciego de nacimiento expone la verdadera ceguera en tiempos de Cristo –la ceguera de los líderes religiosos que se creían muy buenos y justos. Dentro de pocas semanas, en la Vigilia Pascual, la Iglesia proclamará a “Cristo nuestra Luz” cuando el Cirio Pascual es llevado dentro de las iglesias oscuras de todo el mundo. Que la oscuridad del pecado que impregna nuestra vida, comunidades y nuestro mundo sea disipada por Cristo quien viene trayendo vista al ciego y luz al mundo. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

SANTO TORIBIO DE MOGROVEJO (1538-1606)

23 de marzo

Toribio nació en Mallorca, España y desde muy joven mostró un interés y conocimiento notable del derecho civil llegando a ser profesor de Derecho en Salamanca y juez inquisitorio. Siendo laico recibió el nombramiento de Arzobispo de Lima, por pedido del rey Felipe II al Papa Gregorio XIII. Llegó a Lima, Perú en 1581 y quedó sorprendido al ser testigo de los abusos de los conquistadores y la poca atención del clero hacia los pobres, pues se habían puesto del lado de los opresores. Esta situación le conmovió tanto que fue el primero en convocar un concilio de obispos en América; como fruto del mismo concilio se logró la impresión de catecismos y libros de texto en el idioma vernáculo, promoviendo además, una renovación en la vida de los sacerdotes. Visitó todas las comunidades de su diócesis en tres ocasiones, sufriendo los embates del clima, el hambre y la falta de mapas. Además de fundar hospitales y el primer seminario de América, fue quien trajo justicia y paz al Nuevo Mundo. Se le honra como el santo patrono de los obispos latinoamericanos.

CARIDAD

Si verdaderamente quieres ayudar a tu prójimo, tú primero debes acercarte a Dios con todo tu corazón. Pídele que te enseñe a ser caritativo, la virtud más grande de todas; con esta virtud puedes realizar todo lo que te propongas.

—San Vicente Ferrer
